

Health Impact Assessment: Introduction or Refresher Session

Date: Tuesday 3rd March 2020

Timing: 9:30 – 13:00

Location: North Wales (Venue to be confirmed).

Refreshments will be provided.

Session outcomes:

The session will cover: A basic understanding of HIA, what it is and how it is done; the underpinning values and components of a high quality HIA; an overview of HIA in the context of current policy in Wales; a case study of a HIA in Wales; and a practical introduction to screening.

Learning outcomes:

- Understand the purpose of HIA
- Know the policy drivers that support the use of HIA
- Know the benefits and outcomes that HIA can achieve
- Understand the HIA process and methods
- Know the resource, skills and knowledge requirements for completing a HIA
- Understands the ethical principles and values that inform HIA
- Identify opportunities for using HIA in practice
- Know how HIA can be applied in a range of contexts

This event is relevant for:

- ❖ Those who have no prior or little knowledge of health impact assessment or those who wish to re-familiarise themselves with the process
- ❖ People who may be asked to contribute, support, commission or participate in a HIA
- ❖ Anyone who wants to develop an understanding of how to integrate or improve impact on health and well-being in their work
- ❖ Professionals / workers from a variety of sectors and settings

How to apply:

- ❖ The event is free to attend
- ❖ Places are limited and will be allocated on a 'first come first served' basis
- ❖ When applying please indicate which session and venue

Before the event:

- ❖ On receipt of registration forms delegates will be sent an email to confirm their place; joining instructions will also be provided.
- ❖ For further information please contact: vicky.smith2@wales.nhs.uk or Telephone: 029 2010 4470

